Bring your Tobacco to Fairmont; Sell it at Fairmont Warehouses and Trade with Fairmont Merchants

A Record of Progress--One of the Town's Livest Business Houses

dealers, occupy the handsome Washington, made at Washingquarters shown in the upper ton, N. C. They sell a line of corner of this page. The lower buggies as can be seen from the pi_ture is an illustration of their above, that can not be excelled addition was built and nothing wagon department they sell bigger achievements, and since their coming to Fairmo: tin 1904 the progress of the firm has been marvelous. 1909 the business was burned and before the Hill buggies, The Goldsboro bug-

W. B. Brice & Son Live stock factured in Kinston, N. C. the building before the splendid new any where at any price. In their better illustrates the progressive Fiedmont and Hickory wagons. policy of the firm than these two They sel! Shelbyville harness photographs. They are never and a great assortment of robes satisfied with the old maxim of that come to Fairmout hear the "Let well enough alone" but are inscript on 'Sold by W. B. Brice always pushing forward toward & Son, Fairmont, N. C.' In their ashes were cold so to speak Mr. gies, The Ellis buggies, manu-

THE BELLE

SURRIES,

ES

Building with the Lew Wagon and Buggy Annex

and buggy house was added.

Mr. Clayton Brice, son of W. B. Brice and active manage of a good sales stable. W. B. dealing, and the fine quality of to their needs. The farmers and the firm of Carter & Brice of much money that would otherknown all over that section. W. with Mr. Brice. B. Brice & Son handle more stock than any stable in this sec- For courteous treatment and tion and one can truthfully say square dealings call on that three out of five wagons

Brice had begun work on his and accessories. In a farming new stables. In 1910 he moved section and in a town of which into them and in 1913 the wa con the farmers are the back bone it is necessary that the town have the business is a native of Duplin Brice & Son answer this need County and comes from a fami admirably. Mr. Clayton Brice! ly of Horsemen known all over who is in charge is popula ith Duplin County for their square the farmers and caters expressly the stock they sell. Mr. W. B. the firm pull together well and Duplin and their reputation is wise leave Fairmont is spent

W. B. Brice & Son

The Building before the Annex was Built

W. B. Brice & Son