W. R. Surles

A Proctorville Firm That is a Credit to the Town.---Dealers in General Merchandise

They sell a general line of

Store Building of W. R. Surles

sent site of the town and since of the legislature when the town then his name has been connect- was granted a charter in May, ed with everything that looked 1913. was astablished in hanswirthuilding servative, and optimistic.

toward the betterment of the He is an efficient, popular town. Mr. Surles is a traveling manager and the success of the salesman but this in co way in- firm owes much to his industriterferes with his interst in the ous leadership. As can be seen town. The firm, W. Suries from the above illustration, the in the firm; W. R. Surles have a handabove. some building and the treatment the firm is one of the second a farmer receives from the firm few towns can boast, solid. cina is just, if not more, handsome than the building.

Dealers in Drugs, Drug Sundries, Etc. A Progressive Firm with a Large Patronage Behind It.

Proctorville was a distinct e- course in the Illinois Post Gradpoch in the town's progress. In nate School of Chicago. This the latter part of 1912 Dr. T. B. school is rated as one of the Ayers founded Ayers Pharmacy greatest of its kind in the world. which was destined to quickly numbering among its faculty, establish itself in the section be- Dr. Ino. Murphy, who is percause of the high standard and haps the greatest surgeon of the up to date service the lirm has last decade. Dr. C. F. Bullock always maintained. Dr. T. B. is caring for Dr. Ayers' practice Avers, the proprietor, is a prac Juntil he returns in August. The ticing physician having graduat- active managment of the store ed from the University College is left to Mr. U.C. Fennell who of Medicine, Richmond, Va, in has been with Dr. Ayers since 1911 and search d his license the March 1913. same year. II in of Le would be hard to find a

The coming of a drug store to Ayers is this summer taking a younger dectors. Ever intent Pharmacy in a town three times corporated and Mr. E. Atkinson I. P. Caraham. on the pursuance of the know the size of Proctorville and the was appointed by the legislature P. P. Smith. ledge that eases human ills. Dr. town is justly proud of it. as mayor and

Avers' Pharmacy

Most Progress-IVERTOWNS

It would be indeed importune merchandise and their stock is a new town a town that has just Atkinson town comm ssioners. to publish anything in regards complete. Mr. K. Atkinson, Mr. come into a realization of its in the election which followed to Proctorville without mention- Surles' manager is a native of own. A young man who has in May the same men were kept comes the demand for a bank ed faith and support of the town ing the part Mr. W. R. Surles Robeson county and was reared felt for the first time his in office. In May 1914 Mr. J. P. and the firm have played in that within about two miles of the strength. A town that pulls to- Price, the present mayor, was progress. Mr. Surles was one town. He was one of the first gether, soul and body, as one elected and the same commisof the first men to come to Proc- men who came to Proctorville man and as Horace Greely said sioners re elected. torville and together with Mr. and had the honor of being ap- of such a town, beware of it for Progressive Proctorville has J. P. Price purchased the pre- pointed its first mayor by an act nothing can impede its progress. 7 stores dealing in general mer-Geographically, Proctorville is chandise, one drug stere, one grandest county in the world, ice house.

Proctorville is comparatively Graham, K. Burnes and O. K.

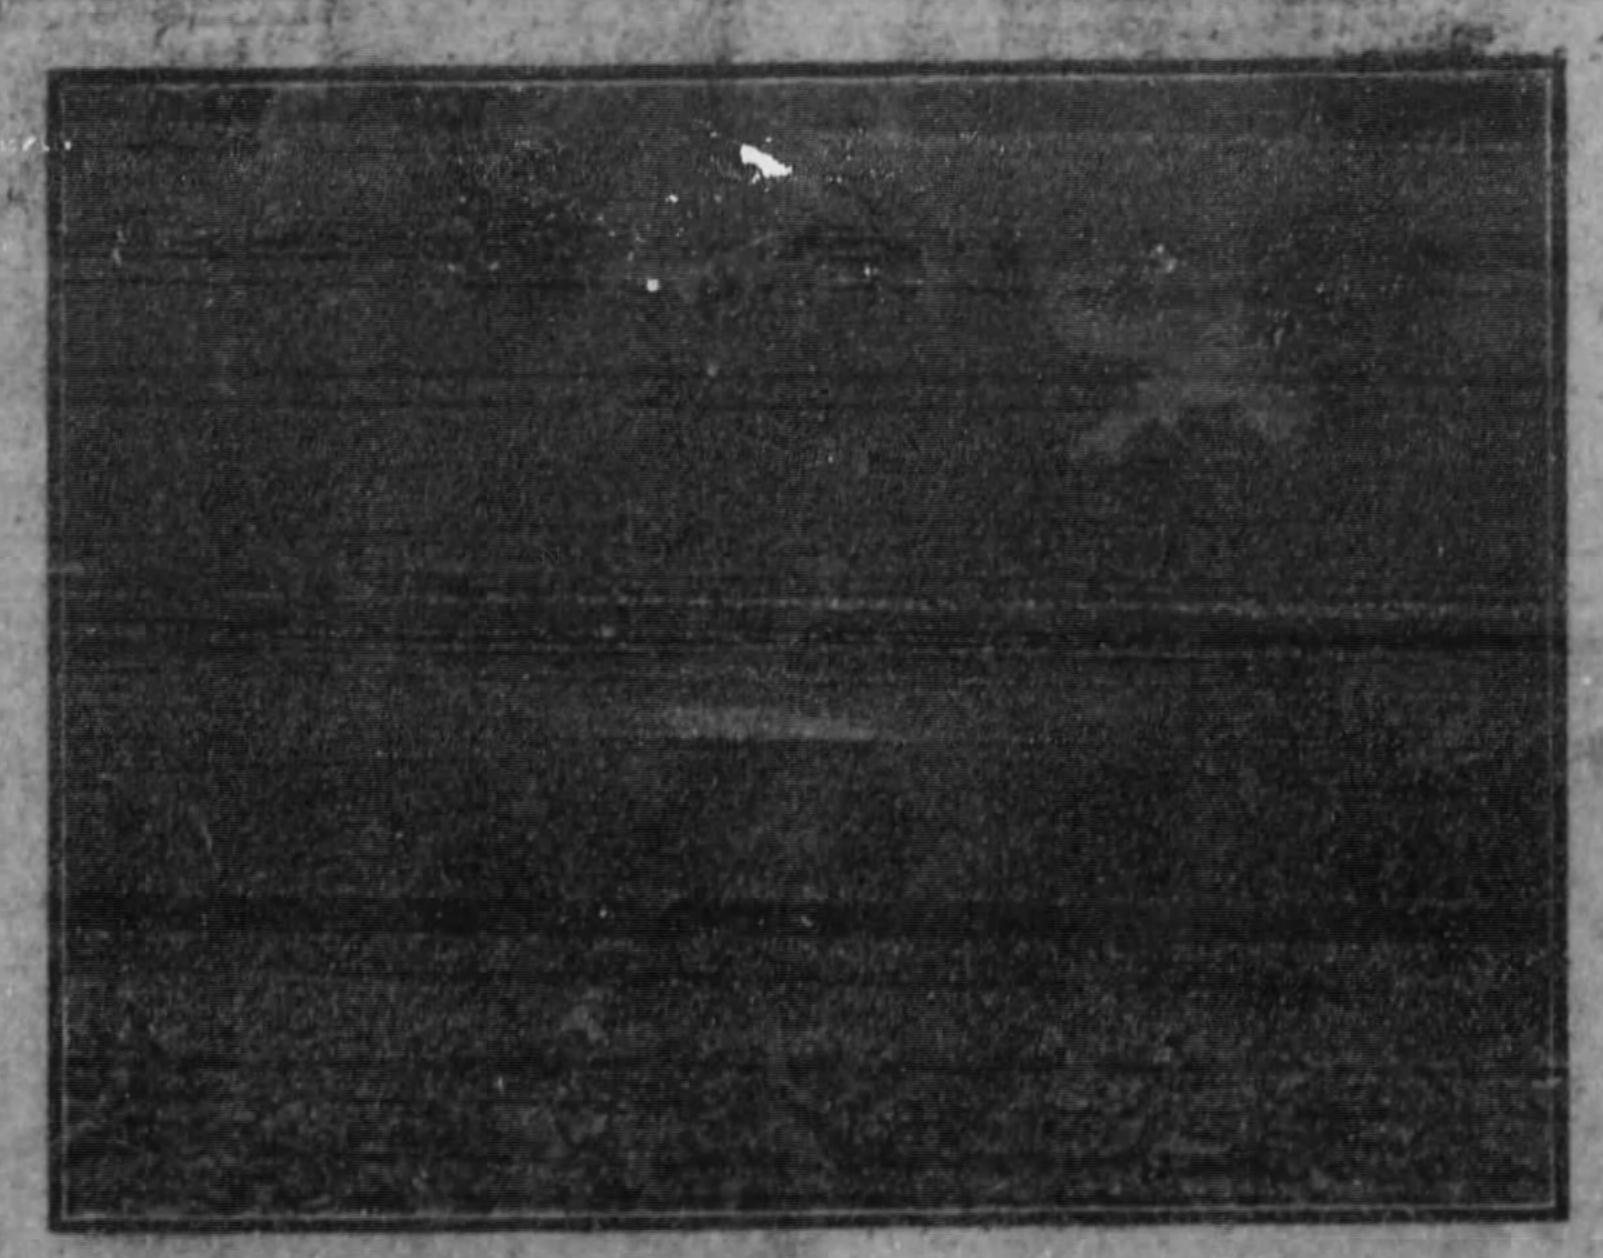

Proctorvie Baptist Church

Its railroad facilitie: are splets. The town has the right loca- Interior of the Bank of Pin nits becauser of this progress is assured. erous country, it is located to the junction of two railroads th't pierce the agricultur country in all directions. R. & C. running north and son and the A. c. L. running and west. It has six passen trains daily and four freighte.

W. R. Su

distributed than adequate to tion and the right men and its eekeral Proctorville depositors money presents her elf, her since its organization the pro- in perfect accord, and the propeation, her advan- dy and consistent.

Graded School Building

what is now Proctorville about sibilities, a good opten years ago and realizing the tremendous possibilities the loc. portunity for real ation offered bought the site and estate advancement began development. But as is the case in small southern towns to the right of a decade ago, development came slowly the great sentiment In the midst ell, go south young man had not finest tobacco and taken hold, and the eyes of the cotton sections of So it can be truthfully said that North (arolina and sweeping town until two or in close proximity three years ago albeit the same to the best markets men were at the helm. Since then it has developed aspace.

for handling them.

One of Robeson's Bank of Proctor-Will C

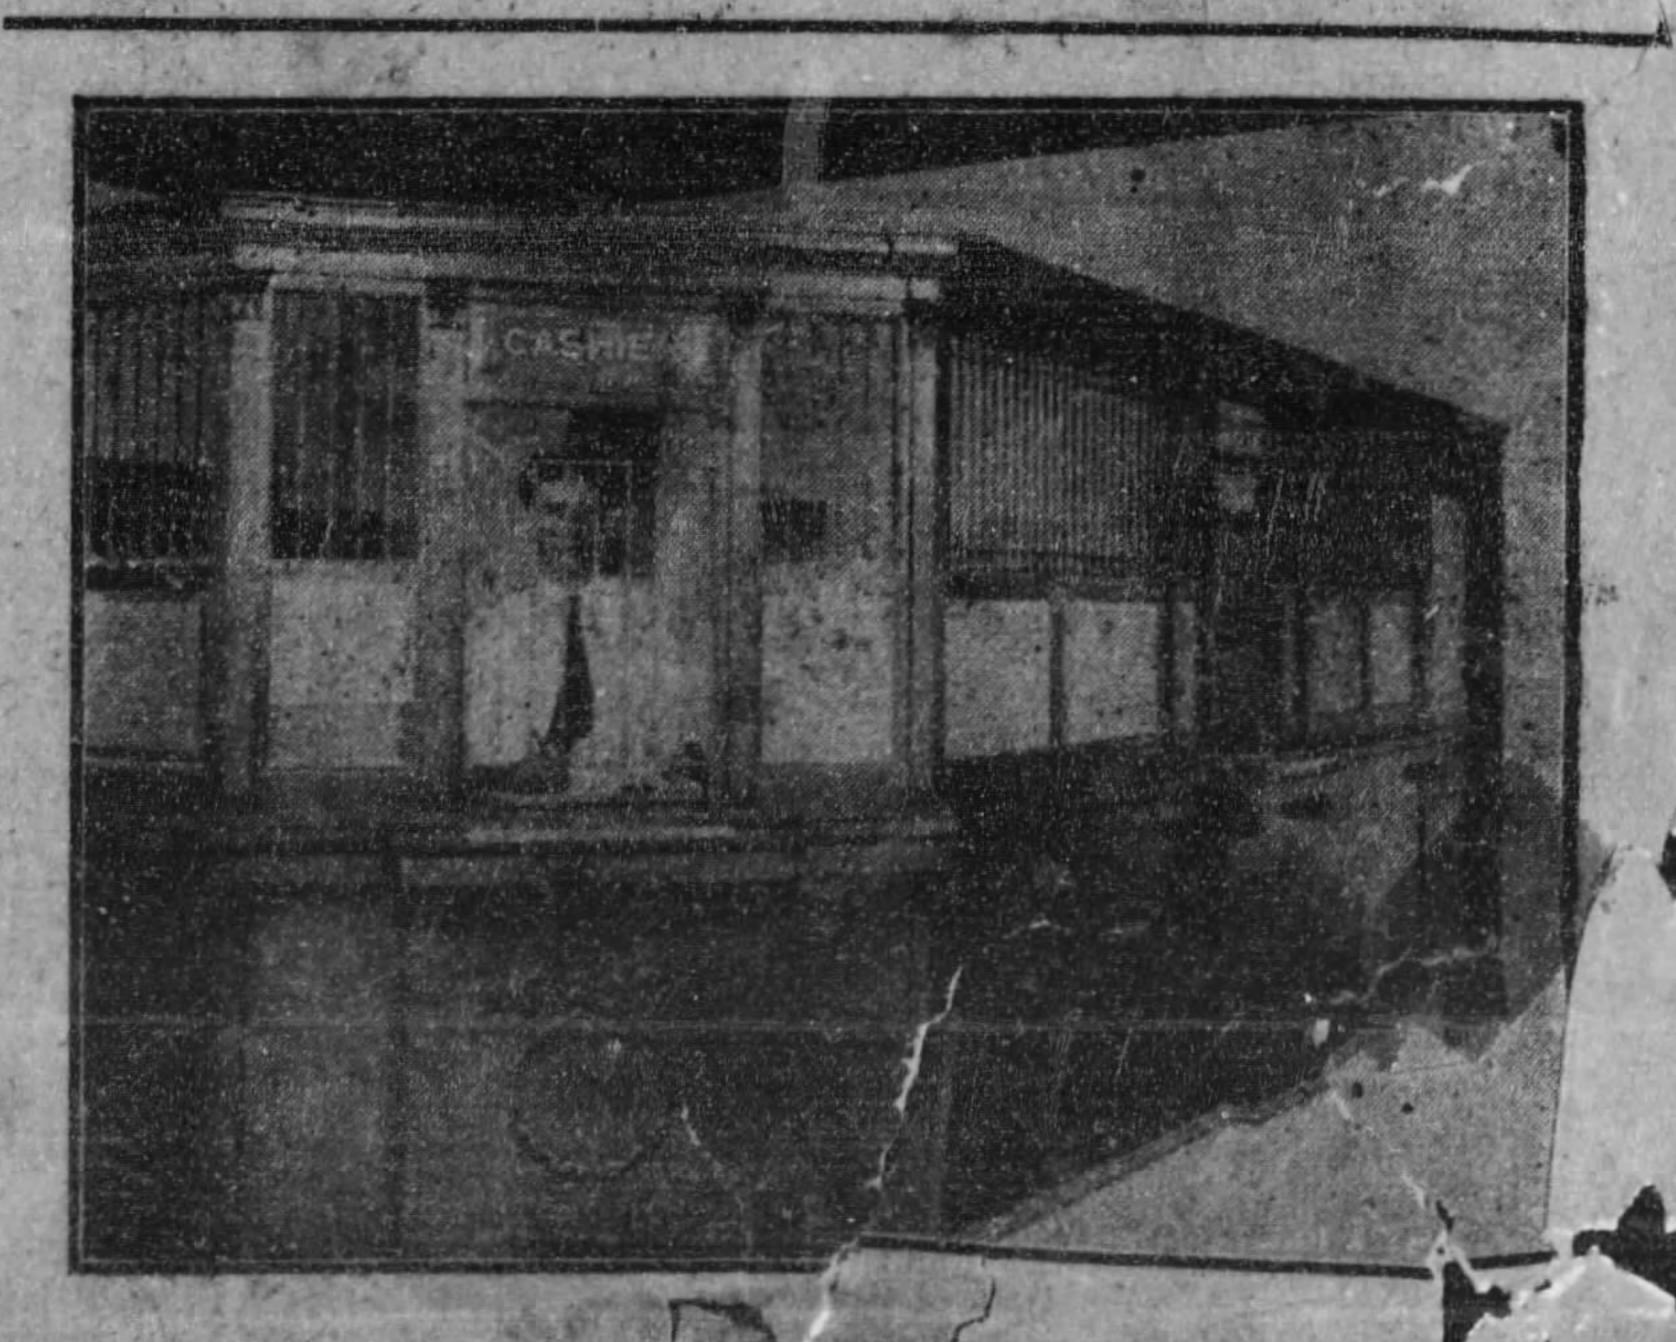

A New Institution for Proctorville. Making Good.---$10,000 Capital.

Bank of Proctorville was organ- wide influence. ized August 8, 1913 with a paid Mr. I P. Graham, cashier up-

It has one of the latest and the First National Bank of that

With the growth of the town Its officers have the unbound and to supply this meed the andsection over which they wield in capital of $10,000. on whom devolves the manage-The following men were elect- ment of the bank is a native of ed officers; K. Barnes, President; Robeson county, born and rear-W. R. Surles, Vice President ed near Proctorville. He has located in the best section of the bank and a meat market and I. P. Graham, Cashier. been with the bank since its As can be seen from the above organization, coming back to his illustration, the bank is one of patire ounty from Dunn, N. C. the most modern in the section. where he was connected with strongest billular pr nome-the market, and in Lawn. I'm prostants dat the hank reflects his ability as a banker.

The town and the bank work gress can only be forward.

they came to with splendid pos- The Sanitary War-Men.

Dealers in Fresh Meats, Fish, Ice and Fancy Groceries. --- A Much Needed Convenience Supplied.

Market reflects in every detail Proctorville section. towns leave open. A really resident of Proctorville for first class grocery store and vears. Besides managing market where one can get all the store he is postmaster and luxuries supplied in a city store. for the two Railroads the

The above out of the Sanitary headquarters for ice for the the progressiveness of the firm. Mr. P. P. Smith, proprie of of The sauitary market fills the gap the Sanitary market is a market that so many of the smaller of northern end of East

The Sauitary Market

Robeson County and one of the more modern and better manage In March, 1913 by rangact of Write J. P. Price, with a large be round by some its the is a young works release progress. Or splendid grocery stock in which save lines and his store has adis kept fresh meat at all seasons ded much to the progress of the of the year. The store is also hown.