GENERAL WERGHANTS

A Progressive Firm of Which the Town is Immensely Proud

This Firm Handles Furniture, Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats, Notions.

Store of Fairmont Supply Company

Interest in the Town's Progress They Income Proprietors of the New Dixie

Taking an Active

Theatre.--Anything to by Up Fairmont is The developement and the instan- Aside from his connections has a seating capacity 350 or of their ability.

this county having been born in present time Mr. Floyd is offer. of the best machines on the Barnesville where he spent most ing to Fairmont Homeseeker 3 market. It produces a clear perof his early life. He came to acres of property sub-divided in- fect picture and the changes are Fairmont in 1911 and began to beautiful lets. This choice easily and quickly made. The business in the stand now occu- piece of property, is located with- Dixie has an $800.00 piano, elecpied by Jones & McKenzie, the in the very center of the town trically operated, an unusually R. L. Pittman building. In 1912 and faces 235 feet on Main street fine model for the size of the he built the handsome structure the most relect street in the theatre shown on this page and Feb. 1, city. This perty is bounded The Dixie was opened Feb. 1913 commenced business there, on Main struith cement walks 10, 1914 and since that time has Mr. J. H. Johnson was reared Is in easy

The consolidation of The Fair-near Fairmont and cast his lot churches, accessible to electric mont Furniture Co. owned by with the town in 1907. In 1910 lights and all in all offers to the Mr. J. H. Johnson and E. G. he organized the Fairing at Furni- home builder a beautiful place Floyd & Co., Mr. E. G. Floyd ture Co. and B. direct. for a residence. Mr. Floyd is proprietor in May 1913 brought ed this firm compsolida lalso offering for sale two lots together two of the most progress tion with E development and progress since living in Fairmost. The Fairmont Supply Co. The its organization. It was erected Mr. Floyd is also proprietor of consolidation of the two firms in 1912 and opened for business the Dixie Motion picture show. was a natural consequence a Feb. 1, 1913. The firm is one Fairmont's only picture house happy consolidation of the efforts that is bound to progress they and one that does credit to the of two of Fairmonts young busi- work along modern ideas. Handle town. Only the very latest and ness men. Two young men the very best quality of goods most high class reels are shown whose interests run along par- and every patron is an advertiser at the Dixie and 3 to 4 reels are allel lines, lines of progress and for them. shown each night. The theatre taneous success of The Fair- with the Fairmont Supply Co. more and is one of the most mont Supply Co. is ample proof Mr. E. G. Floyd is prominently modern in every detail. identified with Fairmont's pro- The motion picture machine is Mr. E. G. Floyd is a native of gress and advancement. At the a Powers No. 6 model A. and one ch of school and played to packed houses.

Incorporated