(Cont including safe to sa population is situated railway a Coast Line rod, N. C. main line Railway te mont) to C this route Strawberry the Chado

the fegusater! town has for two freight. Lalan Guily in the the extras. The Beaufori C. her Co, has the riv Fairmont to D

> ediate nere

does assisted by an excellent mont where most of live are a picture est school building in the and order. They a with the exception of bly built, well aired Lumberton and the and their hands are; Devi in the proud of it.

the of the town is e.es is supplied from ells and hills and nknownofficials :: Mayer, E. V. Me amiel,

Commissioners, J. D. McLean, Dr. L. E. Ricks, Dr. J. P. Brown,

L. Jones. goresentative men ough their guidance n has recently adpidly. During Mcas mayor the city have been paved and here the town has assumed dity airs. The Masons, Knights of Phythias, Jr. O. U. A.

Investigate Fairmont's advan-Etrumen- tages.

Residence of F. L. Blue

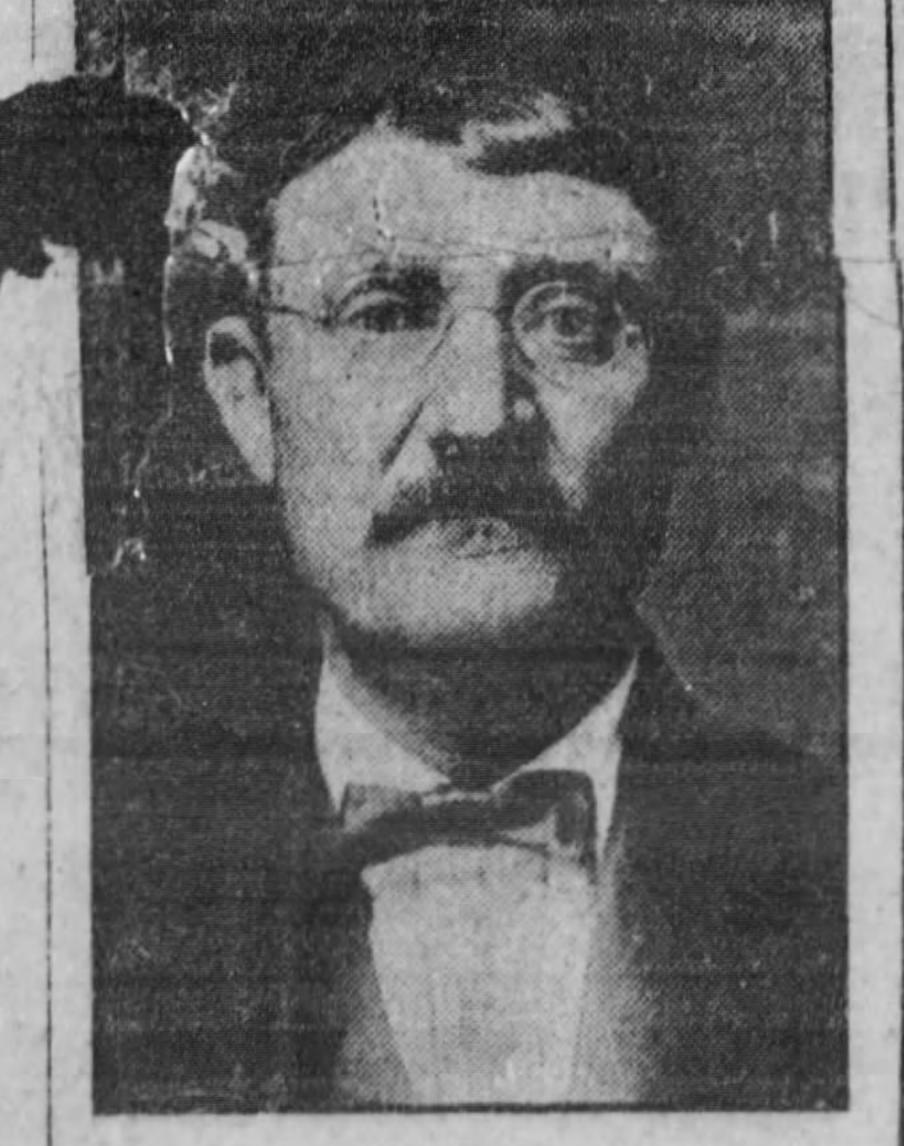

general store styled by the men ling the second growth. There July 21, 1913.

No. 2 Residence of O. I. Floyd.

Brown;

No. 3 Residence of Dr. J. P. of work to perform and when startling to one who is familiar tion. with the proverbial laziness of the southern darkey was the way in which the colored men worked. They seemed to work p as if their whole heart was in their task. This was explained to me by the engineer of our train. He told me that these men are given a certain amount they are through for the day as they generally finish early by hard work they labor as few darkies in this section do.

E. V. McDaniel, Mayor of Fairmont.

Mr. H. B. Phillips is manager of the shipping branch of the business.

Consistent with their policy of all ways on the lookout for the North Fairmont, Dr. L. E. Ricks From Fairmont the log roads and completely furnished apothi-

E. G. Floyd has under growth of the already booming miles up into the county and Aside from the financial value project for the develop- town was the establishment of pierce almost every nook and of the Beaufort County Lumber company is a perfect mud.

S. P. WILSON Postmaster

S. P. Wilson

Postmaster S. P. Wilson was born in Currituek County, North Curolina, within a few miles of the Virginia line, in 1864. His boyhood days were spent in that county until the time he took his college course at the State University at Chapel Hill in 1883. After leaving college he taught school for several years in different counties of the State, then went into business at Burlington, Alamance County He remained in Burlington for about ten years. M. and Woodmen have lodges their help is so far above the probably however the most While there he was married to Miss Kate Matthews of Goldsboro, average order of such a com-striking part of the trip. Every-From Burlington he went into to the teaching profession again munity that he contrast to a where the trees seemed to have and has been teaching in this State and Georgia up to about a stranger is truly remarkable. The been cut with an eye on preserv- year before he was appointed postmaster by President Wilson on were no skinned small trees or Mr. Wilson is the first Democratic postmaster appointed in Fairother signs of ruthless waste. mont for several years. He is striving to give the best service Another contrast that was possible to the patrons of this office and is giving perfect satisfac-

. Stanley, Chief of Police

The above photograph of Mr. they have finished that task Stanley is a splendid likeness of Fairmont's Chief of Police, Mr. Stanley came to Fairmont March 31, 1913 and Nov. 8, 1915 was nade Chief of Police of the own. He was formerly Chief C. and has a rong record as and le ficient and capable officer. He is very popular in the town and lis unanimously liked.

> the Town

S. V. Stanley.

Miss Lorena Lewis

the company store handles a wellfare of their labor the com-diversified and up to date line of pany has a resident physician in An Up-to-date, High Class Millinery Store. --- Handles Ladies' Hats, Notions, Etc.

> Fairmont is well endowed with a shop that caters exclusively to ladies. Miss Lorena Lewis its proprietor is a specialist at Supplying women's wants and her cozy little shop is a delight to women shoppers. Miss Lewis specializes on millinery and her milliners produce some of the prettiest styles to be found anywher. She also sells notions muslin underwear and all those little dainties that are dear to woman's heart. For five seasons she has had Miss Mary Monige. of Baltimore, assisting her.

iss forena Lewis

bing Fairmont proprobably been the ter a det led description of town, in 1910, tor and ral building materia The Beaufort County Luip r

Tue heart school bulleting the working of a well niled me

these Dr. J. P. North Fairmont

At the present A splendid impetus to the of the company run about twenty cary shop. ment of one of prettiest pieces shipping headquarters of The woods. A ride over this line the center of a fine timber secof property in the town. Three Beaufort County Lumber Co., of enjoyed by the writer out the tion. acres facin; Main street with Whaleyville, Virginia, just outtwe blocks f the business cen- side the northern elge of the which will be found elsewhere The Beaufort Count, Lumber in this edim. The handsome company is one of the hours t Jones milding erected in Inmher corporation; in the south 1912 has des much to increa-e and their logging camps employ the value real estate in the between three and four han and nown and articularly in the men. Some idea of the amount business sion. It is an units it of number this corpo attor harat buildinger a fown the size dies can be gained from the fact of Fairmo and the cut of it that they ship a special train printed el here in this paper load out of their woods every gives oul faint idea of its other day. This train carries aro and 200,000 feet of timber; The towns a modern cotton and the minimum freight on this an troughty works which train is $700.00 for each trip general merchandise.